Supt. Jim Braddy, N.Cal./Nevada:

“An effective church is not the result of great programs but great relationships. My friend Jonathan Gainsbrugh has prepared an excellent seminar to help you & your church improve the development of relationships for positive growth in your church. You will want to invest your time & resources in this training time.”

Sr. Pastor Perry Kallevig, Harvest Church-Elk Grove, California :

“Jonathan Gainsbrugh has a passion to see growth in the local church. We recently asked Jonathan to share his “Spell it with an R” Seminar with our staff at Harvest Church. This seminar, adapted to fit a two-hour format, turned out to be very beneficial in reemphasizing the need for “Relationship” in each of our ministries.

A couple of weeks after the seminar our staff talked through a self-assessment questionnaire he provided by Gainsbrugh ministries to help us evaluate how well we are doing in connecting with the people we are ministering to. This was very helpful in making necessary adjustments and improvements. Jonathan will be a blessing to you and your staff as well.”

Sr. Pastor Scott Hagan, Mars Hill Church, Natomas:

“Jonathan has given me more great ideas and insights about everything-Kingdom in the areas of visitor-care, new believer care & healthy growth, than anyone else in my life.”

Sr. Pastor Bret Allen, Bethel Church, San Jose, CA

“I was privileged to hear Jonathan share this at a district event. The material was relevant & to the point. I invited him to come lead a session with our pastoral staff. The result of this day was a shift in mindset!, For months we had been discussing the significance of emphasizing people over programs. “Spell it with an “R helped put some practical teaching and action points to our philosophy. I recommend this ministry to you if you’re interested in closing your church’s backdoors & increasing the relationship factor of your pastoral staff. “

Pastor/Presbyter Scott Flanagan, Harvest Community Church, Roseville:

“In our busy lives, sometimes it’s hard to choose how we will invest our time in resources that will add value to our church. That is why I would like to recommend Jonathan Gainsbrugh to you. He has written many books & spent years helping churches grow, but his current passion is something every church and pastor needs to hear.

Earlier this year my staff read Jonathan’s recently published work entitled “The Lamb’s Book”. It challenged us to prioritize relationships in every area of our church. He also presented his “Spell It With An R” seminar to our key leaders & small group leaders. It was outstanding! Jonathan also preached about “Relationships” in our Sun. AM services. His wit & Biblical insight’s captivated the audience. As a result, many people joined a small group for the first time since attending our church. Today, we offer 38 small groups & our leaders still draw upon the insights from the “Spell It With An R” Seminar.”

Sr. Pastor Coco Perez, Horizon Christian Fellowship:

(4 Wednesday nights for leaders) “It is my pleasure to recommend to you the ministry of Jonathan Gainsbrugh. As pastors, we know that “relationship” is a crucial, vital element: personally with God, and then of course, church-wide. We know people have a God-given “longing for belonging”. They must connect with others, or they’ll move on down the road! In this material, Jonathan solidly helps (from the start) to establish a scriptural “Theology of Relationship.” He helps comfortably bring “it” from the ‘back of the bus’ ... up front to the ‘drivers seat”.

Jonathan brought it to us, at my suggestion, in a creative 4 week series, in our Wednesday PM leader’s enrichment track. This setting allowed us more time. It gave our leaders 4 successive Wednesdays (1 hour each) with him, for their enrichment. These times were very well received (with the 28 page syllabus) at an informal, non-rushed pace. Three weeks later, Jonathan presented his shorter Sunday format “Spell It with an “R” presentation (with power point) in both our Sun. AM Services. I’ve heard nothing but good reports and expect to reap tremendous, ongoing benefits of healthy, relational growth...in months & years to come.

I heartily recommend this material and our brother to you, whether for a 2 ½ hour seminar, Sunday services, during weekly staff meeting, Wednesday night(s), staff board retreats, leadership meetings, or as you see fit. I’m sure he will prove to be a blessing to you & your church, as he’s been to us here.”

Sr. Pastor Hector Gutierrez, Laguna Christian Center:

“Jonathan Gainsbrugh is a tremendous resource to the Body of Christ. He has insight into our culture that every church leader needs to know. His style of communicating is both humorous and thought provoking. Jonathan’s time with our leadership team left us with meat to chew on for weeks to come. If you want to take a serious look at the effect your church is having in your community, then have Jonathan Gainsbrugh speak to your church or leadership team. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.”

“I love your Theology of Relationship; even better, your phrase: “Relationology”
